Leadership

Together.

Together. We are the voice, the strength and the resource of a diverse and vibrant Jewish community.

We are agents of change. Caring, welcoming and empowering. We are leaders, volunteers, professionals, and partners in the enterprise of supporting Jewish life and those in need, wherever the need, here at home, in Israel,
and throughout the world.

Happy campers. Federation's Annual Campaign dollars at work have helped make lasting friendships between families from Michigan and Israel. In its third year running, Federation's Israeli Camper Program has brought more than 500 teens from Israel to Michigan for unforgettable summers at Camp Tamarack.

Message to the Community

It's remarkable what a community can do. Together. With the mission to provide help to thousands in need each year, we are the lifeline for the hungry, the homeless, the displaced, the lonely. Together, we are a call to action, mobilizing our resources to make a difference. Together, we are the network that connects people to people. Together we are a vital link to Israel, our tradition, our past and our future. Together, we are Federation.

In a year marked by economic uncertainty and continued global instability, the Jewish Federation and United Jewish Foundation of Metropolitan Detroit demonstrated our community's exceptional organizational strength, resources and impact.

Federation exists to benefit and enhance the lives of everyone it touches, recipients and benefactors alike.

Together, our total philanthropic achievement of almost $63 million touched thousands of lives, here at home, in Israel and in Jewish communities around the world. Together, on five separate missions this year, we brought almost 800 Detroiters to Israel. Together, we continued to maximize our resources, to enhance our educational network, to expand vital social services, to open new facilities and initiate new programs in our community.

By its sheer strength in numbers, our community enjoys a standard of excellence and quality of Jewish life few cities can match. We are indeed a leading community. But our leadership is not a given. It's something we must all work to achieve. Together.

Reviewing the past year of achievement, in this report we recognize and applaud those individuals who have given from the heart for the betterment of our community's future, those who have raised their hands for countless tasks and generous acts of volunteerism, those who have voted with their feet to participate in our missions to Israel, and those who have demonstrated the vision and courage to lead.

Year in, year out, we give ourselves the challenge of reaching higher, giving more, learning more, expecting more of ourselves, and by extension demanding more of our organizations. Together, we must choose our priorities. Together, we can hold on to what's important to us. Together, we stand with Israel. Together, we can make a difference. Together, we can do a world of good.

Our year in review was altogether remarkable:

- Together, we set aggressive fundraising goals, and met our challenge with one of the largest Annual Campaign achievement in Federation's history.
- Together, 600 strong, we journeyed to Israel on our fourth Miracle Mission, creating indelible memories and lasting community connections.
- Together, we established new partnerships and gained new corporate and government support for our causes.
- Together, we streamlined the delivery of Jewish education services by bringing the former Agency for Jewish Education into Federation's Alliance.
- Together, we opened the doors of Shalom Street, pioneering the concept of a family center for the exploration of Jewish cultural experiences.
- Together, we introduced ElderLink's Supportive Communities, a program providing older adults a new spectrum of assistance in their own homes.
- Together, we dedicated the new Dorothy and Peter D. Brown Memory Pavilion, moved the staff of Jewish Apartments and Services offices into the new Miriam and David Mondry Building, and began construction of the Sally A. & Graham A. Orley and Suzanne E. & Joseph H. Orley Jewish Family Service Building, scheduled to open by end of the year.

Federation's 2004 Annual Campaign

A person-to-person, volunteer-based organization, Federation depends on gifts from the heart. Every coin dropped into a tzedakah box, every phone solicitation on Super Sunday, every effort to support Federation's Annual Campaign has the power to make a difference.

The work of Federation's Annual Campaign is never done. Thanks to the hundreds of volunteers who step up to the challenge each year, our Federation has a long tradition of communal giving, ranking fourth in the U.S. for dollars raised.

With co-chairs Marta Rosenthal and Michael Horowitz at the helm of the Campaign this year, our community raised nearly $35 million, including a $4 million achievement for the Jane and Larry Sherman Family Challenge Fund in honor of Max M. Fisher's 95th Birthday. The Challenge Fund was established by the generosity of the Sherman family with their children Robbie and Scott Sherman, Ellen and David Sherman, and Sylvia and Randy Wolf.

To give of oneself is ultimately a benefit with immeasurable payback.

Highlights of Federation's 2004 Annual Campaign

Moving Super Sunday on the calendar to the traditional month of giving, Federation declared December Mitzvah Month, kicking off the Campaign on the first weekend in December with a Super Sunday phonathon, extended to Monday and Tuesday evenings as well. Representing all streams of the community, promoting our agencies, schools and synagogues, hundreds of volunteers united, to make calls, raising nearly $1 million.

Together. Answering the Call to Action

Saving the day: hundreds of volunteers joined forces to make calls on Super Sunday. Shown: l to r: Karen Alpiner, Jill Menuck, and David Goodman.

Fighting words: Anti-Defamation League director Abe Foxman speaks out at a campaign closing event.

Women at Work. The power of women's philanthropy at work in the community annually accounts for nearly 20% of the dollars raised. Federation's Women's Campaign Pomegranate, Ruby and Lion of Judah events, involving a total of nearly 500 women raised over $4.2 million.

In appreciation. Federation hosted an evening in May with Anti-Defamation League director Abraham Foxman, recognizing donors. Nearly 500 attended.

No matter how small or large, every gift is important. It represents a decision. A vote. Smaller gifts can often be the catalysts for larger ones. Together our actions have a significance they would not have individually.

Federation's Miracle Mission 4

Can Federation work miracles? Ask anyone who's been to Israel on a Federation Michigan Miracle Mission. Representing a microcosm of our community, and the largest U.S. Jewish group to visit Israel in 2004, the Miracle Mission brought hope, high spirits and the good will of nearly 600 travelers to Israel for ten days in April. Participants were treated to first-class tours and accommodations in Jerusalem, home hospitality in Michigan's Partnership 2000 region of the Central Galilee, and rare opportunities to meet Israelis from all walks of life, from the highest ranks of government to new olim (émigrés).

Our mission isn't just a "statement" for the purpose of describing what we do in a brochure. It's a living contract — a pledge we renew each year — to energize our community and to mobilize its resources on behalf of Jewish people living everywhere.

No city in the U.S. does missions quite like ours. The fourth "mega-community" trip organized by Federation, Michigan's "trademark" Miracle Missions have now brought the total number of participants to 3,450 during the past decade, more than any other city in the U.S.

Federation's Michigan Miracle Mission 4, ten days, non-stop in Israel. We'll always carry with us the memories: Doreen Hermelin's salami send-off before boarding, former Israel Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu's address at the Hebrew University, Rabbi Berel Wein on the Promenade, Kabbalat Shabbat at the Western Wall, the hospitality of our Partnership 2000 family in the Central Galilee, the sound of the siren on Yom Hazikaron, the celebration on Yom Ha'Atzmaut. Am Yisrael chai! Israel lives!

Together. On a Miracle Mission

On the wings of the Miracle Mission, three missions followed, with 36 participants in the Grosfeld Leadership Program III Mission, 105 young people traveling on the Teen Mission, 23 participating on the Young Adult Division (YAD) Summer Mission, and 60 educators completing the curriculum of Federation's Judaic Early Education Enrichment Project with the "J.E.E.P" trip.

And what better community response to the recent mission experiences than to launch Federation's newest initiative. Plans are now underway for Federation's first Family Miracle Mission, set to go in December 2005.

Those who participated in Federation's Miracle Mission came home with wonderful memories and a strong desire to share that experience with their families. Bringing the family is the ultimate statement that being in Israel is not only safe, it's life-affirming, and an essential thing to do as a community.

Our year together

Federation is as near as your phone, and as far-reaching as you can imagine. Our work is as complex as it is comprehensive. We are part of the network of one of the most effective and trusted philanthropies in the world, working around the globe to deliver help, hope and comfort to those in harm's way, and to honor and celebrate our ancient tradition. Our Federation continues to expand and improve its vital work because people like you care enough to connect. For the hundreds of ways to connect and become involved in our Jewish community, there are doors open to you at Federation. All are welcome. Visit anytime online at www.thisisfederation.org or call (248) 642-4260.

Mitzvah Day. It is rare that a Federation program continues to draw the kind of participation that Mitzvah Day does annually. For those who join us on December 25, the experience of volunteering in the community is most rewarding. Once again this year, almost 900 people came through to serve meals, distribute gifts, and spread cheer in dozens of social service agencies throughout southeast Michigan. There was wide media coverage with showings on the evening news on FOX 2 and Channel 7.

A Federation first and prime example of community action working at its best: with the help of Representative Marc Schulman, (R-W. Bloomfield) Federation secured a $500,000 appropriation from the state for the purpose of funding services to those with special needs.

Welcome to Shalom Street. Expanding horizons, working in partnership with the Jewish Community Center, we opened the doors to Shalom Street, a first of a kind museum geared for children and their families, through the generous sponsorship of the Harry and Jeanette Weinberg Foundation and the Ford Motor Company Fund. Elementary as it may seem, Shalom Street offers much to grasp amidst its colorful interactive displays, permanently housed in the D. Dan and Betty Kahn Building on the Eugene and Marcia Applebaum Jewish Community Campus.

A sign of health and fitness. With heavy lifting to fulfill the Millennium Campaign promise of $35 million in renovations and renewal at the Jewish Community Center, we opened our community's new Center Fitness Club.

Keynote speaker for Federation Forum, University of Michigan President Mary Sue Coleman addressed 200 in attendance on the subject of "Diversity on Campus."

Carnivale! Choosing a unique venue for a campaign fundraising event, Federation's Young Adult Division (YAD) hosted an evening with almost 150 in attendance among Detroit's favorite floats at The Parade Company.

New resources. Federation launched the new Financial Professional Group drawing an audience of more than 40 professionals in banking and finance for its inaugural event featuring legendary Wall Street money manager and noted philanthropist, Michael H. Steinhardt, as guest speaker.

One in spirit, with our sister community in the Partnership 2000 Region of the Central Galilee in Israel, Federation's 7th Annual Women's Seder, sponsored by the Women's Campaign and Education Department, hosted 350, celebrating women's links to age-old Jewish traditions.

A supportive community. With the support of a $450,000 federal grant from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services – an initiative supported by Representative Joseph Knollenberg (R-MI) and Senators Carl Levin (D-MI) and Debbie Stabenow (D-MI) – we launched a new spectrum of services for older adults under the banner of our new Supportive Communities Program.

Our year together

Expanding our services and facilities to care for older adults with dementia and other memory disorders, construction was completed on the Dorothy and Peter D. Brown Memory Pavilion, a state-of-the-art program for 30 residents on the third floor of the Edward I. and Freda Fleischman Residence/Blumberg Plaza.

With thanks to the Mondry family, the administrative staff of Jewish Apartments & Services now has a home of their own, in the new David and Miriam Mondry Administrative Office Building on the A. Alfred Taubman Jewish Community Campus in Oak Park. With this construction, space for programming activities has been returned to residents.

Breaking ground, taking our Jewish Family Service to a new level of service across from the Eugene and Marcia Applebaum Jewish Community Campus, the new Jewish Family Service facility is scheduled to open soon, bearing the name of its generous donor family Graham and Sally Orley and Joseph and Suzanne Orley.

Together, we can do a world of good. You may never see their faces or know their names. But you can change the world for a young émigré to Israel, an older adult living in poverty in Kiev, or the family in crisis right next door. That's the power of your gift to Federation's Annual Campaign.

Young Leadership and Professional Awards

Together, making their mark. Each year the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Detroit recognizes three outstanding individuals for their commitment, their exceptional leadership skills, and their promise for leadership in the future.

Frank A. Wetsman Award

Todd Sachse

As co-chair of the Real Estate and Property Management Committee and vice president of the Jewish Community Center, Todd Sachse gives generously of his time, expertise and attention to detail in every project that he takes on in the community. Vice president of Broder & Sachse Real Estate Services, Todd has been a solicitor for Federation's Annual Campaign and a participant in the Odyssey Leadership Mission. A lead volunteer for the numerous renovation projects at the JCC, including reconstruction of the Health and Fitness Center, Todd is also a past recipient of the Susan Alterman Young Leadership Award from the Jewish Community Center.

Sylvia Simon Greenberg Award

Jennifer Silverman

As a current board member the Women's Campaign and Education Department, and an officer of Jewish Family Service, Jennifer Silverman has inspired colleagues and donors alike with her 'can do' attitude. She has served in many different capacities in the Women's Department, as well as Federation's Young Adult Division, and Planning Division. She co-created the YAD Couples Committee and was instrumental in creating and co-chairing Shalom Baby. In addition, Jennifer serves as a trustee for the Jewish Women's Foundation. She has been a member of the Missions Committee and has been on three of the four Miracle Missions – serving as a bus captain for one of them.

The Mark Family Award

Sheri Wagner

As the co-chair of the 2004 Campaign for the Young Adult Division, Sheri Wagner has made her mark with her organizational skills and creativity in recruiting volunteers and soliciting donors. In fact, her innovative solicitation model is now being adapted in other divisions of the Campaign. A vice president of Star Trax Corporate Events, Sheri has demonstrated her enthusiasm and commitment to the community through her work on Federation's Women's Campaign and in Federations Partnership 2000 endeavors. Additionally, in her service to the board of Congregation Shaarey Zedek she has been instrumental in building bridges between young adults and synagogues in the community.

The Mandell L. and Madeleine H. Berman Award for Outstanding Professional Service was established through a generous endowment in 1988 to recognize the outstanding contributions of professionals employed by the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Detroit and its partnership agencies.

Marion S. Freedman

Caring and compassionate, a consummate professional capable of creating a sense of family and intimacy in the most public of roles, Marion S. Freedman epitomizes all that the Berman Award is meant to represent. Self-described as a team player, Marion is a masterful leader and motivating speaker, recognized and admired for her organizational skills, positive energy and ability to build consensus. As Director of the Women's Campaign and Education Department, Marion brings to the position over 15 years of expertise working on behalf of the Jewish community with groups of all backgrounds. Before joining the staff of Federation's Planning Department in 2001, Marion was the Director of Federation's Neighborhood Project, the Oak Park-Southfield community program. Beyond her communal work for Federation, Marion has served as president of Temple Beth El, and has held leadership positions with the Sinai Guild and Bloomfield Hills School PTO. Additionally, she is the 1999 recipient of Federation's Avrunin Award for Professional Development. Marion and her husband, Dr. Michael, live in West Bloomfield and are the parents of three and grandparents of six.

As our communal safety net for people in all circumstances,
Federation is all about connecting.

Lifetime Achievement Award

Celebrating length of service, range of activity and deep commitment to the community, Federation's 2004 Lifetime Achievement Awards recognize four outstanding individuals whose life's work serves as a benefit to all.

Margot and Warren Coville

Together, Margot and Warren Coville have dared to dream big dreams as the founders of the I Have a Dream Foundation in Detroit and the TRICO Foundation, a Coville-Triest Family Foundation. Together, they have served both those foundations as chair and director. The Covilles have also been benefactors of JARC, establishing the Warren and Margot Coville Scholarship Fund for Independent Living, and of Jewish Family Service, endowing its Coville Group Apartments for the Elderly Project.

Founder of Guardian Photo, Mr. Coville, himself, holds a distinguished record of volunteer activities, serving as a board member of the Cranbrook Academy of Art, the Detroit Institute of Arts, Hutzel Hospital, Jewish Family Service, Jewish Home and Aging Services, MSU Alumni Association, Pistons/Palace Foundation, Temple Beth El and United Jewish Charities.

Margot Ellen Coville, a "career volunteer," has given most generously of her time – more than 11,000 hours at Children's Hospital. She has served on the boards of Children's Hospital and JARC and has been a member of Brandeis University, City of Hope, Cranbrook, Founders Society/DIA, Hadassah, and the Sinai Hospital Guild.

Shirley and Merle Harris

Together, Shirley and Merle Harris are an extraordinary couple, committed to making a difference.

They are the creators and benefactors of the Merle and Shirley Harris Children and Family Division for JARC. With their generous gift to Huron Valley-Sinai Hospital, they funded the Merle and Shirley Harris Birthing Center, which opened its doors in 1999. They have chaired the United Jewish Appeal President's Mission to Turkey and Israel. Both Mr. and Mrs. Harris have received Federation's Young Leadership Awards, the Frank A. Wetsman Award and Sylvia Simon Greenberg Award respectively.

Mr. Harris has served on the board of the Jewish Federation and has chaired its Annual Campaign. Other past positions include president of Jewish Family Service, chair of Sinai Hospital, president of Standard Club and Franklin Hills Country Club, and chair of the Detroit Chapter of the Young Presidents Organization. Currently, Mr. Harris serves as chairman of Huron Valley Sinai Hospital, and is a member of the board of the Jewish Fund and Northern Trust Bank.

Mrs. Harris, first woman at Federation to co-chair a division in the Annual Campaign, has been the president of Federation's Women's Department, has served as vice president of the United Jewish Foundation, a board member of the United Jewish Charities and the Jewish Federation.

Margot and Warren Coville

Shirley and Merle Harris

Established in 1951 and named for a revered community leader, the Fred M. Butzel Award is recognized as the highest honor the Detroit Jewish community can bestow upon its leaders.

Stanley Frankel

A quiet force in the community, and one to shun the spotlight, Stanley Frankel has played a pivotal role in the success of numerous charitable, educational and cultural organizations. A member of Federation's Board of Governors since 1969, and longstanding member of its Executive Committee, Stanley currently serves as chair of Federation's Joint Fiscal Oversight Council.

In his 35-year association with Federation, Stanley has served as vice president, treasurer, chair of Federation's Annual Campaign (1985 and 1986), and chair of the Education Division. An ardent advocate of Israel, Stanley has accompanied hundreds of Detroiters on missions to Israel, and served as the leader of Federation's first "Koach Detroit" Mission to Israel and Eastern Europe in 1985.

A past president of Federation's Young Adult Division, as well as the national United Jewish Appeal's Young Leadership Cabinet, Stanley has been often cited for his community leadership. He is a recipient of the prestigious Frank A. Wetsman Young Leadership Award (1974), the William H. Boesky Memorial Award for Outstanding Leadership (1970), the American Association for Jewish Educators Young Leadership Award (1975), and the national United Jewish Appeal Herbert Lehman Award for Young Leadership (1980).

Beyond his Federation appointments, Stanley is an avid supporter of the community, working on behalf of many causes and organizations. Currently he is actively involved in the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, JARC, and the Anti-Defamation League of Michigan. Stanley is also an officer of the America Israel Education Fund.

A longtime and generous supporter of the University of Michigan, and recipient of the 2000 Distinguished Alumni Award of the University of Michigan Business School, Stanley actively supports the university as vice chair of Michigan Difference National Campaign Leadership Cabinet, a member of the University of Michigan Angell Society, the President's Advisory Committee, and the Advisory Committee of the University of Michigan Business School. Additionally, he is a past chairman of the board of trustees of the University of Michigan Hillel.

Son of Jean and Samuel Frankel of Bloomfield Hills, Stanley Frankel carries forward his family legacy of exemplary service to the community. Mr. Frankel holds the distinction of being a second-generation Butzel awardee, following in the footsteps of his father, who received the award in 1984. Stanley and wife, Judy, with children, Caren, Robert and Aaron, have been active community builders.

Together, this is what we do. As the primary instrument of Jewish philanthropy and volunteerism in our community, the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Detroit seeks to translate Jewish values into social action that provides for the health, welfare, educational, spiritual and cultural needs of the Jewish people worldwide.

Israel is a young country. 26% of the population is under 14 years old. Thousands of children in Israel – children who have been victimized by acts of terror – are now living at-risk, burdened by challenges that would overwhelm many adults. Federation dollars have helped launch after-school programs for over 1000 children in our Partnership 2000 region of the Central Galilee.

Sarah Weiner Keidan of DeRoy Testamentary Foundation counts pennies with fifth-graders at the annual Tzedakah Experience.

Leaders aren't born. They emerge.
By the goals they set. By the actions they take. By the efforts they inspire in others. Just as leadership develops, so too does community. We are indeed a leading community. But our leadership is not a given.
It's something we all must work to achieve.

Together.

The Grosfeld Young Leadership Mission group at the Babi Yar Memorial in Kiev, Ukraine.

Building unique opportunities for developing leaders for the future of the Detroit Jewish community, the James and Nancy Grosfeld Leadership Program is an intensive community education series, culminating in a group travel experience on a mission, organized and supported by Federation. In 2003 eighteen participants were selected for a mission to Kiev and Poland. In 2004 sixteen participants traveled on a special track to Israel in conjunction with Federation's Michigan Miracle Mission 4.

Together, we are the trustees of our Jewish heritage. We have an obligation to cherish it, improve it and guard its future.

Max M. Fisher

Industrialist. Philanthropist. Presidential advisor.
Respected across a wide political spectrum from Washington to Jerusalem. For more than five decades
Max M. Fisher's stamp is on nearly every undertaking in which the Jewish community has been involved.

A Lifetime of Giving—Federation's Annual Campaign

These individuals are recognized for their extraordinary acts of philanthropy through their gifts directed to Federation's Annual Campaign. These gifts include Perpetual Annual Campaign Endowment (PACE) funds.

Millennium Campaign for Detroit's Jewish Future

Initiated in 1998 by the Jewish Federation and the United Jewish Foundation of Metropolitan Detroit, the Millennium Campaign for Detroit's Jewish Future was established to enhance Jewish life in Detroit with a twofold goal. One: to promote Jewish education, congregational programming, culture and arts, identity and continuity for generations to come. Two: to redevelop, renew and transform the Jewish Community Center, building a true "center" of Jewish life for the entire community.
