For some, caring for those in need is a natural response, deeply rooted in family tradition. For others it's a simple gift. A way to say thank you or pay tribute. A way to feel good. For others still, it can be a calling, a passion, even a mission; the desire to go further, reach higher, dig deeper, volunteer, advocate, learn, lead. Call it your connection. Look at it as a door in, a way to help, a way to make a difference, a way of life. This is how it begins. This is where you belong.

This is Federation.

Building community has always been our business.

Building on the legacy of philanthropy in the Detroit Jewish community, our strength at annual fundraising remains a source of pride and cause for celebration. In a year of continued economic challenges to the community and emerging needs, the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Detroit raised $35 million in its Annual Campaign, an outstanding achievement by any measure. Building on the trust of our community, together the Federation and United Jewish Foundation touched thousands of lives.

In a year marked by record demand for service, our family of agencies continued to provide for the health, education, well-being and enrichment of the Jewish community here in Detroit, in Israel and around the world.

Building leadership and recognizing a new generation stepping up to the challenge, Federation launched its first Fisher Leadership Mission to Israel in September 2004. With the purpose of forging new relationships here in Detroit as well as in Federation's Partnership 2000 region of the Central Galilee, the 22-member Mission came home invigorated, inspired, and empowered to do more.

Building community, starting from the core strength of families, Federation finalized its plans for its first Family Miracle Mission set to bring nearly 800 to Israel in December of 2005.

Building on the vision of a new and expanded Jewish Family Service, we opened the doors to the Graham & Sally Orley and Joseph & Suzanne Orley Building in West Bloomfield, a beautiful office facility to accommodate the growing needs of our community.

Building for the future in a win-win move, Federation and the Foundation are working with the Jewish Community Center on a major development in our community's educational system. Exciting plans have begun to build a permanent home for the Academy on the second floor of the D. Dan and Betty Kahn Building in the heart of the Eugene and Marcia Applebaum Jewish Community Campus. The construction is scheduled for completion in 2007.

“What the Jewish community will look like in the future will be what we make it. It's an enormous challenge to American Jewry, to its leadership...to decide what our future is by how we reach out to the inter-married, how we reach out to young people—how we touch and engage the generation who will decide what the future of Judaism will be. Our future will depend on the steps that we all take together.”

Mandell L. Berman

What drives Jewish Detroit? What keeps our Jewish community vibrant and growing? Who are we serving and who are we missing? To answer those questions, the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Detroit has launched a number of bold initiatives in a strategic plan to increase community participation in the Annual Campaign. Starting with a population study that – 16 years after the previous one – will canvas the community and serve as our bank of knowledge, our goal is to expand Federation’s reach, improve its work, and raise the bar to new levels of donor and volunteer participation. Marketers might call the process “building the brand.” We prefer to call it what we recognize it to be: building community.

In this report we recognize and applaud the extraordinary collective enterprise of our Jewish community and its spirit of collaboration. As a community, our accomplishments reflect the efforts and generous support of a dedicated leadership—agencies, professionals, business partners, as well as our legion of volunteers.

As Jews in America, and particularly here in Detroit, we live in the best of times. In ways our ancestors never thought possible, we enjoy unbridled freedom. We have choices. We have influence. We have resources. We are part of a world-wide people, with responsibility for each other. Together, we can do a world of good.

“We are all connected. One big, extended family. From generation to generation, our tradition has always been about community. The history of Federation is as old as the Detroit Jewish community itself. Over the years, some of our needs have changed. But one thing hasn’t changed. Our responsibility to care for one another.”

Our work. It works.

At any moment of any day there are children, teens, older adults, families – some in dire need, some frail and vulnerable, and some painfully alone – supported by Federation's Annual Campaign dollars at work.

Tuesday mornings like clockwork, a dozen older adults, grappling with the early signs of memory loss, gather in a support group called the Memory Club to practice strategies for coping, compensating and keeping sharp mentally. The program is offered to the community by JVS and supported by Federation's Annual Campaign funds.

Federation's role as the primary fundraising arm of the community is far reaching. Yet like the proverbial forest missed for the trees, Federation's work in the Jewish community is rarely seen or comprehended as a cohesive whole.

Out of work, but not out of hope, a father of three escapes a personal financial crisis by paying an emergency medical bill with funds secured from Hebrew Free Loan Association supported by Federation's Annual Campaign dollars.

Through funding directed to its family of agencies, and through a myriad of programs and events throughout the year, Federation sustains its mission of caring for those in need, rescuing those in harm's way, strengthening the Jewish community in Detroit, in Israel and around the world.

Newly arrived from Israel and on their way to Camp Tamarack on a sunny afternoon in June, 50 campers clamber off a bus to meet their Michigan host families. Fresh Air Society's Camp Tamarack is a partner agency of Federation, and the Israeli Camper Program is supported in part by Federation's Annual Campaign.

With co-chairs Michael Horowitz and Marta Rosenthal taking the lead in Federation's 2005 Annual Campaign, our community raised nearly $35 million, which includes a $4 million achievement for the Jean and Samuel Frankel Challenge Fund.

Recounting the harrowing trek across the desert, Ethiopian storyteller Esther Asresie Getu Germay shares her personal journey to Israel with visitors to "WITH STONE SHOES," an exhibit mounted exclusively for the children's museum Shalom Street, a program of Federation's Alliance for Jewish Education, and supported by Federation's Annual Campaign.

From Federation's "Shalom Baby" to its "Search for the Oldest Jews of Detroit," from kibbitzing and drinks with YAD (Federation's Young Adult Division) to a Women's Campaign night out to the theater, from a Teen Mission to Israel to a Single Parents Family Camping Retreat in Ortonville, there's a place and time just for you in the Federation community.

Women at Work: The power of women's philanthropy in the community annually accounts for nearly 20% of the dollars raised. Federation's Women's Campaign, including Pomegranate, Ruby and Lion of Judah events, involved nearly 300 women and raised over $2.5 million.

Federation exists to benefit the lives of everyone it touches. To give is to receive so much more in return. Whatever your background, whatever your age or stage of life, Federation offers a connection, an event or a program, a study group, a volunteer opportunity or affinity group to match your interest or need.

Completing a two-year commitment to study, 100 graduates of the Florence Melton Adult Mini-School celebrated a "siyyum" in June. Traditionally a siyyum also marks the start of a new course of study, implying that one is never truly finishing learning. The Melton School is a program supported by Federation's Campaign dollars.

As part of the network of one of the most effective and trusted philanthropies in the world, Federation works around the globe to help those in need and celebrate a tradition that is more than 5,000 years old. Our Federation continues to expand and improve because people like you care enough to connect and get involved.

Identifying the next generation of leadership, Federation's Young Adult Division (YAD) held its first Heritage Event at the home of Lauren and Phillip Wm. Fisher. That night YAD raised $350,000, close to half of its 2005 Annual Campaign achievement total.

Where to start? Check Federation's community calendar where hundreds of events and programs are listed throughout the year. Visit www.thisisfederation.org/calendar, or call Federation's Resource Line at (248) 592-2650.

It is rare that a Federation program continues to draw the kind of participation that our Mitzvah Day does annually. This year on the Friday before Christmas, December 24, roughly 300 people volunteered to serve meals, bake, distribute gifts, and spread cheer in dozens of social service agencies throughout Southeast Michigan.

Do you know?

Here in Detroit, Federation and its ElderLink network of agencies have created Supportive Communities for the purpose of helping older adults maintain their quality of life, while living independently in their own homes. As possible state and federal budget cuts threaten our base of services, and the number of older adults requiring care grows, there's a need for increasing community support for our seniors as they age.

While enrollment continues to grow in our community's Jewish day schools, families are finding tuition increasingly difficult to afford. Of 2,300 children attending Jewish day schools this past year, approximately half required financial assistance, funded in part by Federation's Annual Campaign allocation to the schools. With the vision of securing the future of our community's Jewish day schools and synagogue schools, Federation has established a Jewish Education Trust Fund. A gift directed to this fund can impact the future of generations to come.

Nineteen hundred rides per month. That's a lot of driving. That's the number of rides that Jewish Family Service provides to medical appointments, along with other services, for frail and aging residents of the community. Jewish Family Service is a partner agency of Federation and supported in part by Federation's Annual Campaign funding.

We call it PACT for short. In Netanya, Israel it means a head start for Ethiopian Parents and Children Together. Federation's Annual Campaign has a direct influence on PACT, funding literacy and other enrichment programs to help prepare 1,700 pre-school children from 850 families succeed in school and in the greater Israeli community. The program is considered to be a critical factor in integrating this vulnerable population into Israeli society.

Beyond touring and going places they never dreamed of, participants on the Young Adult Mission to Israel had the opportunity to see how our Detroit Jewish community connects to Israelis from all walks of life. They saw firsthand how Federation dollars work to support Israel's most vulnerable populations as they visited an Ethiopian Absorption Center, a program for troubled teens, and numerous other sites. The group returned home inspired – part of YAD's mission to involve diverse groups of people in its Annual Campaign.

It can happen to you. Networking through Federation's newly formed Financial Professionals Group has yielded exciting developments and significant benefits for individuals as well as for the community. You never know the potential of a simple luncheon or the opportunity presented in a meeting, until you make the connection, and tap into the strength of the Federation community.

Federation's partner Agency, the Jewish Community Council enlists over 400 volunteers for its literacy program, operating in more than 40 public elementary schools in Wayne and Oakland counties. Reaching out to the greater metropolitan community, Council helps students learn to love reading.

The largest program of its kind in the nation, "Opening the Doors" provides more than 670 children with learning disabilities the support they need to succeed in 19 afternoon religious and Jewish day schools. Celebrating its 10th year, the program now serves as a model for other communities, thanks to a dedicated professional staff of educators and continued support of Federation's Annual Campaign funding.

With the goal of inspiring teachers to bring Israel to life in the classroom, the Jewish Federation brought a delegation of 99 educators in Jewish studies and the arts on its first TEAM MISSION to Israel. The largest mission of its kind, specifically geared toward teachers working with grades K through 5 in Conservative and Reform congregations, the 10-day trip was sponsored by Federation's Alliance for Jewish Education, with support from the Hermelin-Davidson Center for Congregation Excellence.

Campus Hillel Foundations reach out to more than 10,000 Jewish students on 13 college campuses in Michigan. Hillel Jewish Student Centers are the home base for a wide range of student-run programs and events, Shabbat dinners and holiday celebrations. For students interested in study and travel to Israel, Hillel helps provide the opportunity through Birthright Israel and OTZMA programs.

AMY SCHLUSSEL

Rising stars. Each year the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Detroit recognizes three outstanding individuals who have demonstrated exceptional leadership ability and commitment to the community.

Sylvia Simon Greenberg Award

Amy Schlusssel

The immediate past president of Federation's Young Adult Division (YAD), Amy Schlusssel is a current member of Federation's Board of Governors, as well as the boards of Women's Campaign and Education Department and YAD. As chair of YAD's strategic planning committee, Amy has been instrumental in significant change in the manner of conducting the Campaign, redefining the YAD mission and creating the YAD Education and Culture Committee. In the Women's Campaign and Education Department, Amy has also made her mark serving as chair of Shalom Baby, as well as a member of the Young Women's Steering Committee. A consummate fundraiser, Amy continues to work on numerous campaign efforts.

Frank A. Wetsman Award

SCOTT KAUFMAN

Scott Kaufman

A past president of YAD, Scott now serves as chair of Detroit Men's Young Leadership Cabinet, co-chair of Federation's Marketing Committee, and advisor to the Grosfeld Leadership Program. In addition to these roles, Scott serves on the boards of Fresh Air Society and the Jewish Community Center. Scott has also been instrumental in creating numerous YAD programs, including the highly successful Unfettered Program. A natural Mission leader, Scott has served as associate chair of Federation's Michigan Miracle Mission IV, national chair of the UJC Young Adult Israel Summer Mission, and chair of the YAD Summer Missions in 1999 and 2000.

Mark Family Award

BRAD "BUBBA" URDAN

Brad "Bubba" Urdan

One of Federation's most committed young leaders, Bubba has served as a member of the boards of YAD, Jewish Community Center, Jewish Apartments and Services, and ORT. As an officer and Campaign Chair of YAD, and a member of UJC's Men's Young Leadership Cabinet, Bubba has been a steadfast promoter of Federation, taking on a mentoring role with new board members. A strong advocate for Israel, Bubba has served as a trip leader, national co-chair of the YAD Israel Summer Mission, member of the Partnership 2000 Young Leadership 4 program and the Missions Oversight Committee.

Established in 1988, the Mandell L. and Madeleine H. Berman Award recognizes the outstanding contributions of professionals employed by the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Detroit and its partnership agencies.

Marsha Goldsmith Kamin

Caring and compassionate, with a quiet dignity touching the hearts of hundreds of older adults in the community, as well as their families, Marsha Goldsmith Kamin exemplifies those qualities which render the Berman Award a prestigious honor. Described by colleagues as “a consummate professional, a consensus builder, creative dreamer and an unwavering proponent of all that makes life rich and good for the elderly in the Jewish community,” Marsha has been a consistent driving force and nurturing influence on Jewish Apartments & Services.

MARSHA GOLDSMITH KAMIN

In the 14 years of her stewardship, the number of apartments available has grown 57%, now serving over 860 older adults. In her capacity of Executive Director, she has overseen the construction of the second phase of Hechtman Apartments and both phases of the Meer Apartments. In addition, she has built a dedicated staff to care for the growing needs of the residents. She has obtained millions of dollars in HUD grants for improvement of facilities and services, and won national acclaim for innovative programs, including a model prescription drug program, an independent business, J-Care, providing in-home assistance for daily living, and “8 OVER 80,” an annual celebration of productive, vital senior citizens. Engaging the entire community on behalf of older adults in her care, Marsha has instituted teen mitzvah projects with Hebrew schools, teen community service projects with public schools, as well as programs with surrounding synagogues, Federation’s Neighborhood Project and Oak Park residents.

She’s been called the community’s “builder of buildings, hopes and realities.” But as one of her many admiring colleagues has observed, “the real testament to Marsha’s contribution comes from our Jewish Apartment residents. At a recent meeting of Federation’s Women’s Campaign and Education Department hosted at Meer Apartments, one of the residents spoke of the joy and gratitude she feels at having so wonderful and warm a place to live. There wasn’t a dry eye in the house.”

Marsha lives in Huntington Woods with her husband, Mark. The Kamins are the proud parents of three daughters, Shira, Rachelle and Amira.

VIVIAN BERRY

Outstanding over the years. Celebrating length of service, range of activity and deep commitment to the community, Federation's Lifetime Achievement Award was established in 2001 to recognize outstanding individuals whose life's work serves as a benefit to all.

Vivian Berry

No stranger to awards, Vivian Berry is the recipient of Israel Bonds' Woman of Valor Award, and the Eternal Light Award—the highest recognition bestowed by the Jewish Theological Seminary of America. An expert fundraiser, legendary in Federation's Women's Campaign and Education Department, Vivian has served as Vice President and chair of functions too numerous to mention. Vivian has served as president of the Sisterhood of Congregation Shaarey Zedek, and is a founder and past chair of the Michigan Branch of Women's League for Conservative Judaism. Through the years, Vivian has also been active and an influential force in Hadassah, American Jewish Congress, Detroit Committee for the Maintenance of Separation of Church and State and American Friends of the Weizmann Institute of Science. She was recently granted an honorary doctorate by Gratz College in Philadelphia.

Vivian is the wife of the late Louis Berry, and the mother of five, Barbara and Harold Berry, Selma and Jack Schwartz, Joan Provizer, Barbara and Stephen Morse, and Marcy and Michael Feldman.

GRAHAM A. ORLEY

Graham A. Orley and Joseph H. Orley

Brothers who describe one another as closest friends and partners for life, Graham A. Orley and Joseph H. Orley, say "it's all about family." The primacy of family was indeed at the heart of their most recent philanthropic decision to help build a new home for Jewish Family Service. Their generosity opened the doors to a magnificent new building in West Bloomfield, and virtually ensures the agency's mission into the 21st century; to care, comfort and heal families in need in the Detroit Jewish community.

For all their adult lives Graham Orley and Joseph Orley have been involved with Federation's Annual Campaign, as well as a multitude of projects in the Jewish community. A past president of the United Foundation, Graham Orley is a member of Federation's board. He has been chair of the real estate committee, chair of the Maple Drake Authority, co-chair of the Annual Campaign and a board member of the JCC, United Hebrew Schools and Shaarey Zedek. Joseph Orley, a member of Federation's board and a past chair of Federation's Annual Campaign, has been equally involved as his brother in Jewish communal and civic causes.

Collectively the Orleys have been generous and lifetime supporters of Israel with strong affiliations and significant contributions to Israel Bonds, Bar-Ilan University, Technion, ORT, and Weizmann Institute. Locally they have been active with Congregation Shaarey Zedek, Hillel Day School, Detroit Symphony Orchestra, William Beaumont Hospitals, and the Henry Ford Health System.

Joseph and his wife, Suzanne, are the parents of Joy and Allan Nachman, Marcie and Robert Orley, Melissa and Lawrence Lax and Harriet and Gregg Orley. Graham and his wife, Sally, are the parents of Pamela and Walter Feuereisen, Diane and Randall Orley and Geoffrey Orley.

JOSEPH H. ORLEY

Named for revered community leader Fred M. Butzel, and established in 1951, the Fred M. Butzel Award is recognized as the highest honor the Detroit Jewish community can bestow upon its leaders.

Penny B. Blumenstein

First there's the smile. With a smile that can light up a room, Penny Blumenstein radiates genuine warmth and kindness, a generosity of spirit, the grace and energy of a gifted leader. A woman comfortable with her influence, bold in her decisions and actions, caring and empowering, Penny is described by friends and colleagues alike as a visionary, a community-builder, a diplomat, a consensus-builder, focused yet open to new ideas. Ever modest and practical, Penny herself might ascribe those qualities simply to a good Jewish upbringing and her own hard work.

Named one of Crain's Detroit 100 Most Influential Women, and long involved in philanthropy and service to the community, Penny has the distinction of being the first woman to serve as President of the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Detroit (1998-2001). Federation's prestigious Fred M. Butzel Award tops a long list of Penny's honors, which include Yeshiva Beth Yehudah's Golden Torah Award, the Israel Peace Medal from Israel Bonds, the Jewish Women's Foundation inaugural "Women Lighting the Way" Award, and the Maimonides G'milut Chasadim Award from the International Association of Hebrew Free Loans.

Born and raised in Detroit, a graduate of Mumford High, Penny married young and raised two sons and a daughter while taking classes at Wayne State.

Starting out as a Campaign volunteer over 30 years ago, Penny has served in numerous capacities, moving easily into the ranks of leadership. Her Federation posts include: co-chair, Federation Strategic Plan Action Committee; president, Women's Campaign and Education Department; chair, Federation's Annual Campaign Women's Division, and Annual Campaign co-chair. Currently Penny is chair of Shalom Street, and completing her term as co-chair of Federation's Alliance for Jewish Education.

Beyond the Federation realm, Penny is involved with a broad spectrum of civic, health and cultural organizations. She is the vice chair of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, and a member of the boards of United Way, Henry Ford Health System, New Detroit and Community Foundation for Southeastern Michigan, Hebrew Free Loan and Israel Bonds. Nationally, she serves on the boards of the American Joint Distribution Committee (JDC), United Jewish Communities, and American Friends of Weizmann Institute.

Ardent supporters of Israel, Penny and her husband Harold have created the Blumenstein Family Young Adult Mission Fund as part of Federation's Millennium Campaign for Detroit's Jewish Future.

Penny and her husband Harold are the parents of Dr. Marci Gittleman and Randall Blumenstein, Lauren and Dr. Jordan Cohen, and Carol and Richard Blumenstein, and the proud grandparents of 11.

PENNY B. BLUMENSTEIN

I think that if you can take young people to Israel, you can change their lives, and help instill their sense of responsibility, of history, and of commitment. Going to Israel has a lifelong impact. You can never forget it."

Whatever you do for the community you get back a lot more. You meet people you would never meet. You have experiences you would never experience.

It adds a value to your life that can't be the same by only doing for yourself.

There's just so much to do and so many people who you can help.

Robert Naftaly

One might say it's healthy that Jewish people are able to live in, and matriculate in, and be members of organizations and institutions and neighborhoods all over – as long as Jewish people stay strong in their Jewish identities. What we really would like to have is a total equality in all aspects of life, and yet be doing it as Jewish people. I think our (geographic dispersion) is good, but it does add to our challenge.”

It's the young adults of our community who are needed to ensure that our

Federation thrives. Our involvement sets an example for our children, teaching them the importance of giving back and the impact they can make upon the world. If everyone decided helping Federation is someone else's responsibility...what will happen to all those people who truly need our support?”

New to this giving level since 2004 Annual Report*

Initiated in 1998 by the Jewish Federation and the United Jewish Foundation of Metropolitan Detroit, the Millennium Campaign for Detroit's Jewish Future was established to enhance Jewish life in Detroit with a twofold goal: to promote Jewish education, congregational programming, culture and arts, identity and continuity for generations to come, and to redevelop, renew and transform the Jewish Community Center, building a true “center” of Jewish life for the entire community.

THE JEWISH COMMUNITY ENDOWMENT FUND

Leave a Legacy for Your Family or Community.

By establishing a legacy with our United Jewish Foundation, you can provide for the organizations, agencies, synagogues and causes you care most about. At the same time, you can significantly reduce the tax burden on your estate and optimize tax-related benefits. You can choose a vehicle that will provide you or a loved one with an income for life. You can also involve future generations of your family in philanthropic decision-making.

We have listed some of the most popular options available to you. Please feel free to call one of our endowment professionals for a confidential, no-obligation consultation to learn if one or more of these options meets your needs.

Charitable Bequests and Trusts

Including a gift in your estate plan provides a tax-beneficial way to help deserving Jews in our community in the years ahead.

Perpetual Annual Campaign Endowment/Lion of Judah Endowment (PACE/LOJE)

A permanent endowment providing ongoing annual gifts in your family's name to Federation's Annual Campaign that help ensure the community's needs are met in the future.

The Detroit Legacy Fund

A permanent endowment fund to meet the unanticipated critical and emergency needs of our Detroit Jewish future.

The Jewish Education Trust

To ensure that no Jewish child is denied a Jewish education based on financial need.

The Irving A. Rubin Trust for the Elderly

To help provide essential services for our vulnerable elderly adult population, allowing them to live in comfort and dignity.

Named Endowment Fund

A permanent legacy, perpetuating your ideals and your name, to benefit a specific program or agency in our community.

Philanthropic Fund

A flexible philanthropic "checking account" allowing you and your family the opportunity to support the charities of your choice in the Jewish and general communities.

Supporting Foundation

Provides a unique vehicle for intergenerational family involvement in philanthropy, in perpetuity.

Charitable Uses of Retirement Plan Assets

Including charity as a beneficiary of one's IRA, Keogh or retirement plan could save combined income and estate taxes of up to 80%. A simple change to a beneficiary designation form can do wonderful things for our community with Uncle Sam helping to foot the bill.
