Annual Report to the Community

2001 / 2002

Jewish Federation and United Jewish Foundation of Metropolitan Detroit

We are one.

The Year We will remember how the world changed, where we were when the towers fell, where we stood when Israel wept, and what we did in response. When crisis after crisis in Israel called the Jewish community in Detroit to action, we rallied to stand in solidarity as a community, to care for the most vulnerable among us, to teach our children well, to help Jews in need wherever there is need, and to do our share to help repair the world. This is what we do. This is what we always will do. This is Federation.

For the Jewish Federation and United Jewish Foundation of Metropolitan Detroit, 2001/2002 was a year of historic events and achievements. This was a year of heartfelt giving, reflecting our community's response to its clear priorities. To secure the future of our schools, we established a new Jewish Educational Trust. To support families seeking care for loved ones, we provided ElderLink's continuum of services. It was a year of building and renewal in our Jewish Community Centers. It was a year of unwavering solidarity with our family in Israel. We launched an Israel Emergency Campaign, raising over $7 million to support rescue and relief efforts for victims of terror. We continued to deepen our Jewish identity through Federation's missions overseas. We brought 320 Israeli teens to Michigan for a summer at Camp Tamarack. It was a year of philanthropic initiatives and investments in our future, which demonstrated our leadership among Jewish communities around the world.

Looking back, even in a year of crisis, we had reason to celebrate a community moving forward, delivering on promises made for generations to come. Ordinary people made extraordinary efforts. This was the year of record numbers. Federation's 2002 Annual Campaign, combined with its Israel Emergency Campaign initiative, supported by the Berman/Handleman Challenge Fund, raised 20% over last year's total, representing Federation's largest Annual Campaign achievement ever. In record numbers, our community participated in Federation events. An evening with former

A message to the community

Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu drew over 2000 people to Congregation Shaarey Zedek, the largest attendance for a fundraising event in Federation's history. Yom HaZikiron, a day of remembrance, brought 3,000 to a memorial service. We rallied in Washington; we rallied in the rain in Oak Park.

This was also a year of commitment to Federation's growing family of agencies. Even in the face of economic stress, with outside revenues decreasing and client needs increasing, our Federation/Foundation continued to answer the needs of our schools and social service agencies. This year Federation promoted the growth of the Jewish Academy of Metropolitan Detroit. Our community also continued to invest in its facilities, building its future. This was the year we celebrated new developments on the Eugene & Marcia Applebaum Jewish Community Campus, dedicated the Norma Jean & Edward Meer Jewish Apartments, continued renovations in our buildings at both Jewish Community Centers, and improved our Jewish day schools facilities.

And so our story continues. In the pages of this report we share a story far greater than the sum of our numbers. In words and pictures we celebrate a family story, the story of a community - its leaders, builders, architects, agencies of change, schools, synagogues, supporters, advocates, volunteers, as well as our brothers and sisters in Israel - all partners, working together to make a difference, from year to year, from generation to generation, from strength to strength. This is Federation.

"Only a handful of communities have done what Detroit has done in this time of crisis."

It starts on a Super Sunday in October, and its work never ends. The heart, the spirit, and the drive of Federation is its Annual Campaign. Each year Federation works miracles large and small. Within the Federation family of agencies, synagogues and volunteers, thousands upon thousands of connections are made and doors are opened to promote, sustain and enhance Jewish life in our own community and around the world.

In an outpouring of response to Federation's 2002 Annual Campaign co-chaired by Nancy Grand and Douglas Bloom, our community raised over $37 million, for a total campaign increase of 20% over last year's total.

Highlights of our Campaign include:

Super Sunday kickoff. Breaking all records, over 400 volunteers from all walks of life in Detroit rang up a record $1.2 million from donors – a 25% increase over last year's phone appeal.

Women's CHOICES. In celebration of our Women's Campaign commitment to strengthen the community with their unique contribution, over 400 gathered at Adat Shalom Synagogue for a morning with author, Gail Sheehy.

Young Adult Division's big turnout for Latke & Vodka, mixing and mingling young Jewish singles and couples, has grown into a signature holiday event.

The Honorable Mayor Kwame Kilpatrick, youngest mayor in the history of Detroit, chose to make Federation Forum in May his first major speaking engagement to the Detroit Jewish community. Almost 400 gathered at the Excalibur Banquet Center to hear the mayor's perspective on the Jewish community and the rebirth of the city.

Happy Days at The Main Event. An evening with Henry Winkler – social activist and entertainer – brought more than 500 people to Adat Shalom Synagogue to wine, dine, and meet the star appearing for Federation's Annual Campaign.

Answering a call to action in a marathon effort, over 400 volunteers wrapped up Federation's Annual Campaign Countdown in April, reaching thousands of Jewish households and raising over $1 million in a week.

A look at your Federation's dollars at work:

- $3.14 million to support services to older adults, provided by Federation's five ElderLink agencies: Jewish Apartments & Services, Jewish Community Center, Jewish Family Service, Jewish Home & Aging Services, and JVS
- 320 individuals with developmental disabilities or chronic mental illness supported through JVS adult day programs
- Over $2.2 million in support of six Jewish day schools that enroll over 2,400 students
- 260 loans provided to families in need through Hebrew Free Loan Association; 60 loans provided to students through the Jewish Educational Loan Service
- $647,000 to support Jewish community activity on 13 Michigan college campuses through Hillel Foundations, reaching an estimated 11,000 Jewish students

- Keeping kids safe in Israel, $1.2 million to support an extended day program providing a hot meal and structured environment for four elementary schools in Netanya, Nazareth Illit and Hadera
- $720,000 to Israel in support of PACT, a "head start" program for Parents and Children Together. This program seeks to improve the educational opportunities of the Ethiopian-Israeli community, with a focus on early childhood education and enrichment
- $285,000 to support Jewish Renewal activities in Kiev through programs at the Jewish Community Center, Hillel Foundations, and a series of family education retreats

"Everything we do is geared to raise funds, raise awareness, or raise the spirit of tzedakah on which every Jewish community in the world thrives."

In times of crisis, in hours of need, in acts of generosity and kindness, this was a year marked by the unforgettable events and extraordinary efforts of Federation's Israel Emergency Campaign.

IsraelNOW Solidarity Mission, Sept. 9 - 14: eighty-one strong, Federation's delegation to the national mission had gone to Israel to comfort victims of terror, when terror struck home. On September 11, the group was en route to Timrat in Federation's Partnership 2000 Region of the Central Galilee, when they first heard word of terrorist attacks in New York and Washington.

"There is a Jewish principle that all Israelis live by: You have to choose life. You have to move forward."

Jane F. Sherman
National Mission Chair,
September Solidarity Mission

In remarkable numbers, throughout the year, members of our community continued to participate in Federation's missions to Israel, often representing the largest single delegations from the U.S.

"Some people say I was brave. Some people say I was crazy. The brave ones are the ordinary Israelis struggling to live ordinary lives, despite relentless violence."

Stand with Israel Rally. On Sunday, September 30, more than 1,200 gathered in solidarity and rallied against terrorism at Adat Shalom Synagogue with keynote speaker, U.S. Senator Debbie Stabenow, D-Mich.

“The urgent challenge facing our community is for all Jews, no matter what their religious affiliation or political inclination, to unite around the cause of the survival of Israel.”

Rabbi Daniel Nevins

Lighting the night a week before Chanukah, former Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu drew over 2,000 to Congregation Shaarey Zedek. Those in attendance will never forget the force with which he addressed the issues facing Israel.

“Go out into the community and light a candle for the truth. Truth will defeat lies.”

Benjamin Netanyahu

In March, with crisis escalating in Israel, 800 gathered at Temple Shir Shalom to hear Middle East expert and former U.S. Ambassador to Israel, Martin Indyk discuss paths to peace through political solutions.

“The most important thing we as a Jewish community can do is to be there.”

Penny B. Blumenstein

In solidarity and remembrance, a community-wide Yom HaZikaron memorial ceremony drew a record-breaking crowd of 3000 to Congregation Shaarey Zedek. Earlier that same day, 500 Detroiters stood in solidarity at the National Rally in Washington.

“It took more than 3000 years to build Israel, and now we must keep it.”

Max M. Fisher

“Our tradition speaks clearly regarding what our response must be. As Jews, we are called to action.”

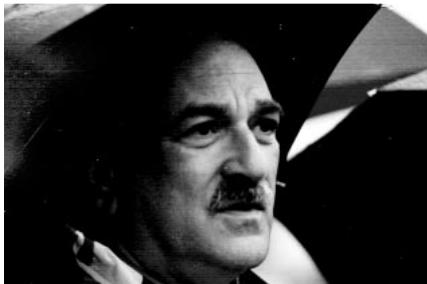

Rabbi Daniel Syme

A first! Mission to Michigan. In an unprecedented move, Federation's Israel Emergency Campaign raised $1.1 million to bring 320 Israeli teens to Camp Tamarack for four weeks of fun in the sun. An opportunity for cultural exchange and enrichment, this special initiative provided youth affiliated with the Israeli Scouts Movement and from the Central Galilee region of Israel a welcome summer haven from the state of crisis in Israel.

In The Year of events, both tragic and momentous, our community brought a new level of energy, commitment and creativity to Federation's mission in mobilizing people and resources. As in all years, we had many reasons to celebrate our holidays, traditions, mitzvahs and milestones.

In September Itsa Mitzvah was a time for good deeds and fun. Holiday baking, crafts, and outdoor beautification projects were the order of the day.

In the spirit of the Friendship Circle, Federation's Young Adult Division joined children with special needs for an afternoon of Sukkah Hopping, with singing, laughing, holiday treats and crafts.

Celebrating the diversity and enduring quality of our neighborhoods, the Neighborhood Project marked 15 years of service to the community. Established by Federation to sustain the infrastructure of the community, the program offers incentive loans to Jewish families living in Oak Park and Southfield.

Finding unexpected meaning in the wake of Sept. 11, our community-wide Women's Day of Learning drew 325 women for study, spiritual reflection, and sisterhood to highlight different aspects of Judaism from a woman's perspective.

Celebrating December 25th as Federation’s Mitzvah Day, a Volunteer Extravaganza, more than 800 members of the community volunteered at over 40 agencies in metro Detroit to fill in for workers spending the holiday with their families. A food and toy drive also was held to benefit the agencies.

How was this seder different? More than 400 women celebrated a Women’s Seder, with three guests of honor from Federation’s Partnership 2000 region in the Central Galilee.

The Great Purim Parcel Project provided a treat for volunteers and recipients alike. More than 250 volunteers made and distributed packets of sweets to bring cheer to some 3000 older, frail and homebound members of the community.

Honoring the wisdom that comes with age, and in celebration of Older Americans Month in May, Federation’s ElderLink hosted a luncheon at the Edward I. & Freda Fleischman Residence/Blumberg Plaza for “Detroit’s Oldest Minyan,” 10 remarkable men and women between the ages of 95 and 106.

Susan Weidman Schneider, editor in chief of Lilith magazine, addressed the topic of new paradigms for women in a new millennium at an open meeting of the Jewish Women’s Foundation Board of Trustees. Growing strong, the Foundation attained its third-year goal of 100 members in May.

Each year, the Jewish Federation presents Young Leadership and Professional Service Awards to those who demonstrate outstanding skill, commitment, and promise for future leadership in service to our community. In recognition of the vital partnership between volunteers and professional staff, Federation is pleased to honor these awardees for the year 2002.

Young Leadership Cabinet

Frank A. Wetsman Award

Dennis S. Bernard

With a ready smile and sense of humor, Dennis brings a high level of innovative business management and financial expertise to our community. A member of the Federation Board, he has served as chairman of JVS since 1999. In that capacity he has led the organization to new heights. A long-time solicitor for Federation's Annual Campaign, a former president of the Young Adult Division, member of the Culture and Group Services Division, as well as a regional chair of United Jewish Communities Young Leadership Cabinet, Dennis was also the 1989 recipient of the William Boesky Young Leadership Award.

Sylvia Simon Greenberg Award

Sari M. Cicurel

Her creativity is her trademark. With her experience as a television producer, Sari is a seasoned professional in managing complex projects. A previous recipient of Federation's Mark Family Award in 1999, Sari is a member of Federation's Board of Governors, as well as a board member of the Women's Department, member of Partnership 2000 Michigan Steering Committee and a solicitor for Federation's Annual Campaign. Sari served as President of the Young Adult Division from 1997 to 1998. She has also served as co-chair of the Women's Department Spring Forum Leadership Series 2002.

Mark Family Award

Barbra Giles

Passionate about her work, dedicated to her community, and driven by her kind heart, Barbra exemplifies what it is to be a Jewish leader. She is the Administrator of Fleischman Residence/Blumberg Plaza, Jewish Home & Aging Services. Barbra has served on the executive Board of the Young Adult Division since 1997. She has been the YAD liaison to the Women's Department, as well as an Israel Singles Mission trip leader in 1999. Barbra has also served as co-chair of Federation's Volunteer Extravaganza and is a current member of both the Partnership 2000 Community Development and Kiev Committees.

Berman Award

Rabbi Avraham Cohen

An inspired educator and outstanding leader, beloved by his students and the community, Rabbi Avraham Cohen is this year's recipient of the Mandell L. and Madeleine H. Berman Award for Distinguished Jewish Community Service. Since his arrival at the Yeshiva Beth Yehuda School for Boys in Oak Park in 1992, Rabbi Cohen has been a guiding force, serving in multiple capacities as an administrator, teacher, and adult educator. Under his direction, "The Yeshiva Beth Yehuda Partners in Torah" program has flourished, and now draws 300 students every Tuesday evening at the Yeshiva boys' campus. This one program has united a community. Men and women from all walks of life have come together for one common purpose: to study Torah. A faculty member of SAJE (Seminars for Jewish Adult Enrichment), an active participant and consultant in Federation's Alliance for Jewish Education, Rabbi Cohen is also a practicing mohel and Torah scribe. Married to native Detroiter Golda Silverstein, Rabbi Cohen is the father of 9 children, who have all attended Yeshiva Beth Yehuda Schools.

Celebrating their years of service to our community, the Jewish Federation honored four remarkable individuals for their spirit of volunteerism, for their leadership and clear vision, and for their boundless energy in working over a lifetime on behalf of the Jewish people.

At the Board of Governors Meeting of June 18, 2002, the third Annual Lifetime Achievement Awards were presented to Helen August, Ruth Broder, Marvin Danto and Beryl Winkelman, following a description of their many roles and accomplishments as community leaders.

The Lifetime Achievement Awards are given on the basis of community involvement, length of service and sincerity of commitment. The skill and dignity these four have brought to their life's work to benefit the community are indeed an inspiration to all.

Fred M. Butzel Award

Robert H. Naftaly

The highest honor our community bestows upon its leaders is the Fred M. Butzel Memorial Award. For his years of distinguished service to Federation and its agencies, for his legendary accomplishments in the fields of Jewish education and care for older adults, and for his strengths as a leader who has inspired others to follow in his footsteps, Federation has named Robert H. Naftaly as the 2002 recipient of the Butzel Award.

Warm, generous and caring, Bob, as everyone knows him, is a past president of the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Detroit, and is a past chair of the Executive Committee and founding co-chair of Federation's Alliance for Jewish Education. In these capacities, he has enormously influenced our community's direction and focus on Jewish education. As founding chair of Federation's Alliance for Jewish Education, Bob helped initiate the Synagogue 2000 program involving all congregations in meaningful exploration of what it means to be Jewish. Bob is equally passionate about the care of senior members of our community. He was instrumental in revitalizing our system of providing care for older adults, and has served as president of Jewish Home & Aging Services.

Beyond his extensive service to Federation Bob serves as treasurer for the Anti-Defamation League, where he also chairs the Audit Committee. For his efforts he was recognized with the Champion of Liberty Award.

A retired CPA with a wide-ranging career that has spanned public accounting, government service and the health care industry, Bob presently serves on the boards of four major Michigan companies and various non-profits. His proud family includes his wife, Anita, their children, Lisa and Howard Brown, Beth and Larry Kirshner, Dr. Bruce Millman and Dr. Alan Millman, and three grandchildren, Zachary, Emily and Benjamin.

Millennium Campaign for Detroit's Jewish Future

Initiated in 1998 by the Jewish Federation and the United Jewish Foundation, The Millennium Campaign for Detroit's Jewish Future will further Jewish education, Jewish identity and Detroit's Jewish life for generations to come. These funds of $1 million and more were established to promote Jewish continuity and identity through the creation of The Jewish Life Fund and associated field of interest funds and to redevelop and transform the Jewish Community Center.
