In times of celebration, in times of crisis, the Federation has always been at the heart of Jewish Detroit, a community 72,000 strong and one of the nation's most generous. Caring for those in need. Rescuing those in harm's way. Enriching Jewish life in Detroit, in Israel, and around the world. Our numbers speak volumes, demonstrating the vitality of a community pulling together. Moving from vision to action. Together, we can do a world of good.

Message to the Community

“We must take chances to ensure the vitality of our Jewish future.”

Out of 6.5 billion people on the planet, there are 13 million Jews; 72,000 live in metro Detroit. Believe it: there is strength in our numbers.

Demonstrating strength and remarkable resilience in an economy where every dollar is hard-earned and hard-won, the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Detroit and the United Jewish Foundation continue to reflect the needs, hopes and dreams of a vibrant Jewish community moving forward.

Building on the trust of the community as its primary instrument of philanthropy, with more than $500 million in communal funds and property under management this year, the Federation and Foundation had total revenues of more than $100 million, representing 12 separate fundraising initiatives.

Funding efforts this past year have involved remarkable achievements; highlights included $36.5 million for the 2006 Annual Campaign, $40.2 million in income from over 600 philanthropic funds and supporting foundations, $9.3 million to complete the capital campaign for the Jean and Samuel Frankel Jewish Academy of Metropolitan Detroit and $1.4 million to complete construction of the David L. Bittker B'nai B'rith Youth Organization Conference Center.

With the purpose of future planning and identifying emerging needs, Federation has begun mining the data from the demographic study it conducted in 2005. Making clear the challenges that lie ahead for the agencies, schools and congregations of the community, the study revealed that Jewish Detroit is deeply rooted, geographically concentrated, a changing community, smaller than expected and growing older.

Annual reports generally look back. In this report, we look forward. This past year has taught us valuable lessons about the need for planning and preparation. Nothing would prepare us, however, for the tsunami in Asia, Hurricane Katrina, and war in Israel.

In the wake of disasters around the world, and through the darkest days of crisis in Israel,

"In two words, our message is this: embrace change."

— Robert P. Aronson

Federation is always there as a conduit and catalyst for the community's generosity and emergency response.

Doing what it does best, Federation brings out the best in all of us. Repairing the world is a task for all of us. It takes risk. It takes courage. It takes commitment.

To benefit our children, our educational system requires new thinking and new funding to support teachers and students alike.

To benefit our oldest generation, our welfare agencies must better serve their growing needs, develop new resources and models in comprehensive pre-retirement planning.

To benefit Israel, at the very heart of our Jewish being, we now must face a new reality. Rebuilding communities and healing families that war has torn asunder.

Turning "what if" into "what is" is never easy. Our highest goals may take leaps of faith, however, they are not out of reach. The future is in our hands, the strength is in our numbers.

Funding the future, building Jewish identity

- 73% of Jewish households live in the core area (23 ZIP codes) with the highest concentration in West Bloomfield, Farmington Hills and Oak Park
- 79% feel connected to the Jewish community
- 58% are locally born
- 88% have lived in metro Detroit 20 years or more
- 63% have a college degree
- 83% have received some form of Jewish education

Donors are owners in Federation's enterprise. Building donorship is the key to our long-term financial stability. Gifts to Federation's Annual Campaign, endowment funding and specifically earmarked contributions are all ways to invest in the future of our community.

Under the leadership of Federation's 2006 Annual Campaign co-chairs Nancy Grosfeld and Lawrence Lax, the community raised $36.5 million, including $4.3 million for the A. Alfred Taubman Challenge Fund.

As research indicates, Jewish education and Jewish values carry through life decisions. To develop community leadership, Federation's 2006 Annual Campaign supported Jewish day schools and congregational schools with an allocation of nearly $2.6 million.

Federation's Alliance for Jewish Education enriches curricula and assists schools with special needs grants, technology and professional development opportunities. Programs also are funded through Millennium endowments such as the Shiffman Family Tuition Assistance Fund, the Hermelin-Davidson Center for Congregational Excellence and the Madeleine H. and Mandell L. Berman Millennium Fund.

This year, Federation completed a $9.3 million capital campaign for the Jewish Academy of Metropolitan Detroit. The school will be renamed for Jean and Samuel Frankel, who provided the lead contribution to begin construction of the school's permanent home in the Jewish Community Center in West Bloomfield. The Frankel's gift was part of a $20 million landmark pledge to the Academy, the largest single gift in our community's history.

*a community
growing older*

Planning ahead, caring for our most vulnerable

- The median age of Jews living in metro Detroit is 47 years old. The national median age is 39.

- 24% of the Jewish population in metro Detroit is 65 or older

- 14% is 75 and older, ranking Jewish Detroit the oldest community outside the nation's top ten Sunbelt retirement communities

Aging in place with dignity. That's a goal we all share, and Federation is committed to helping get us there. Federation's Campaign dollars work to support a continuum of services to benefit older adults through the ElderLink network, which includes Jewish Home and Aging Services, Jewish Apartments and Services, Jewish Family Service, JVS, and the Jewish Community Center.

This year, Federation funding, as well as special grants from endowment funds, such as the Irving A. Rubin Jewish Community Trust for the Elderly, provided $3.5 million in food and apartment subsidies, escorted transportation, living assistance and other vital services for thousands in the community.

To help seniors stay active and independent in their own homes, Federation has been instrumental in creating and funding "Supportive Communities," working in collaboration with its ElderLink network, and neighborhood partners in the Oak Park/Southfield area. Building support for its Naturally Occurring Retirement Community (NORC) programs and other vital services for seniors, Federation continues to seek and secure state and federal government grants to strengthen Jewish neighborhoods.

Taking a more holistic view of the community as it ages, and given the expanding needs for "life-planning" for the well-being of older adults in our community, Federation is working to develop a new model of service. Building endowments also will help develop a centralized and comprehensive system for the community to address the needs of our aging population.

Inspiring Jewish journeys

- 71% of Jewish households with children belong to a synagogue
- 87% of households are emotionally attached to Israel
- 58% of households have at least one member who has visited Israel

Committed to creating a sense of Jewish identity and close ties with Israel, Federation encourages affiliation with synagogues, Jewish schools and organizations. The stronger the ties, the better our collective power works to engage members of the community in Jewish life.

Bringing families closer to Judaism also means bringing more people to Israel. In an extraordinary venture this past December, Federation led its first Family Mission to Israel, providing a once-in-a-lifetime experience for more than 600 family members of the community. Counting an additional five missions geared specifically to teens, young adults, educators and community leaders, and six cultural exchanges, Federation brought a total of 1,250 Detroiters to Israel this year.

Keeping Israel safe has always been a Federation priority. In times of need, it is our mandate to deliver meaningful support, particularly to the communities of our Partnership 2000 Region of the Central Galilee. At the outbreak of war in July, Federation launched an Israel Emergency Fund, committing $15 million as an initial goal to help meet the most urgent needs of the people in the region and throughout the north of Israel.

Thanks to a strong 2006 Annual Campaign achievement and an outpouring of gifts to the Israel Emergency Fund, Federation continues to address the extraordinary challenges in the region, while fulfilling its commitments to a variety of ongoing programs designed to close the gaps among youth-at-risk and other vulnerable populations.

As Israel moves from a state of crisis to a state of rebuilding and recovery, our abiding partnerships in the North are more critical than ever. We continue to build a living bridge, drawing on the strength of every member of our community. Together we can: Help. Give. Hope.

thriving, generously giving*

Pulling together, doing a world of good

- 94% of Jewish households have donated to charitable causes in the last year
- 56% have volunteered their services to the community

From Shalom Baby to the Jewish Entrepreneur's Network, from the Young Adult Division to the Generations Society, from the Women's Department Tikkun Olam Volunteers to Opening the Doors for Special Needs, Federation exists to benefit everyone it touches, no matter what age or stage of life.

Our strength, our scope, our reach, are all functions of a giving and caring community, an unparalleled network of agencies, partners, supporters, donors, and volunteers from all walks of life.

Working hand-in-hand with our partner agencies, Federation links thousands of community members with people and projects that need their help. Volunteers serve meals, drive older adults to doctor's appointments, visit nursing homes, deliver holiday food parcels and toys, tutor young readers, plant gardens, collect books for donation, add a smile and lend a hand wherever needed.

Federation volunteers annually contribute an estimated 125,000 hours to the community, a donation valued at $2.2 million.

From new mothers in Southfield to grandmothers in West Bloomfield, from volunteers once a week or once a year, in the city or in the suburbs, Federation can help you match your interests to others' needs. We invite you to join us. Visit us online at www.thisisfederation.org Together, we can do a world of good.

The Fred M. Butzel Award

Named for revered community leader Fred M. Butzel, established in 1951, the Fred M. Butzel Award is recognized as the highest honor the Detroit Jewish community can bestow upon its leaders.

Diane and Emery Klein

Think of Diane and Emery Klein and the adage comes to mind: to get things done, ask busy people. Ask the Kleins. No request is too large or too small, and no goal is insurmountable. Compassionate fundraisers, ardent supporters of all things Jewish, the Kleins are consummate volunteers. Sharing their passion for numerous Jewish causes and organizations, Diane and Emery now share the honor of Federation's most prestigious recognition, the Fred M. Butzel Award.

Many tributes have been paid to both Diane and Emery for their generosity and span of service to the community. Yad Ezra established its Volunteer of the Year Award in their honor. Together, they have been named as Yeshiva Beth Yehudah Guardians. Emery's honors include the Yeshiva Beth Yehudah Golden Torah Award, the International Association of Hebrew Free Loans Maimonides G'Millut Chasodim Award, and the Bar Ilan Honorary Fellowship Award. Diane is a recipient of the Hadassah National Leadership Award and the Israel Bonds Lion of Judah Award.

The Kleins are dedicated to an extended family of Jewish organizations. Both have served Federation for years as members of its Board and Executive Committee. Diane and Emery have held posts on a long roster of local Jewish boards, including Jewish Apartments and Services, Jewish Family Service, JVS, Fresh Air Society, Jewish Community Council, Hadassah, Yad Ezra, Israel Bonds, Detroit Men's ORT, Anti-Defamation League, and B'nai B'rith Hillel. Committed to education, they have established an Excellence in Education Fund to benefit Jewish educators.

Born in Czechoslovakia and a survivor of the Holocaust, Emery is a self-made and innovative businessman. Described by many as "Mr. Solicitor," Emery has served as chair of Federation's Annual Campaign, president of Hebrew Free Loan Association and president and founder of MOPAC (Political Action Committee). Currently he is a national board member of AIPAC (American Israel Public Affairs Committee).

A native Detroiter, Diane has served as president of Federation's Women's Department and president of the Greater Detroit Chapter of Hadassah. She has been a vice president of Federation and Fresh Air Society. Nationally, Diane serves on the United Jewish Communities Women's Philanthropy and the JACPAC Board of Directors. She is a former member of the National Board of Hadassah.

Married 38 years, Emery and Diane are the proud parents of Jeffrey (married to Cara) and Barbara (married to Dr. Ira Zaltz) and grandparents of Spencer, Griffin, Zoe and Isabel.

Lifetime Achievement Award

Outstanding over the years. Celebrating length of service, range of activity and deep commitment to the community, Federation's Lifetime Achievement Award was established in 2001 to recognize outstanding individuals whose life's work serves as a benefit to all.

Jim August

With a long and distinguished career in advertising, public relations and marketing in Detroit, Jim August has been a creative force in numerous Michigan-based and national Jewish organizations. One of the founders and the first President of the Jewish Ensemble Theater (JET) and as President of the National Foundation for Jewish Culture, Jim has played a leading role in promoting Jewish culture in Detroit and beyond. An officer of the Federation Board, Jim also has served on the boards of Federation's Alliance for Jewish Education, the Jewish Community Center, the Jewish Telegraphic Agency, JVS, Men's ORT, the Michigan Jewish Conference, Max M. Fisher Jewish Community Foundation, Project Renewal, ArtServe Michigan, Celebrate 350, Congregation Shaarey Zedek and Congregation Beth Shalom.

Stuart Hertzberg

A Detroit attorney with a national reputation in bankruptcy and reorganization, Delegate-at-large at six Democratic National Conventions, Stuart Hertzberg jumped into Jewish communal work shortly after his first trip to Israel over 30 years ago. His long list of public posts includes: President of JVS, delegate to the Jewish Agency for Israel, officer of the Jewish Federation, board member of the United Jewish Foundation and United Israel Appeal, chair of the Jewish Population Study (1990), President of Commercial Law League America, Democratic National Committeeman, and Delegate-at-large for the Democratic National Conventions. His dedication to Federation includes serving as chair of the Community Service Division and chair of Federation's Israel and Overseas committee.

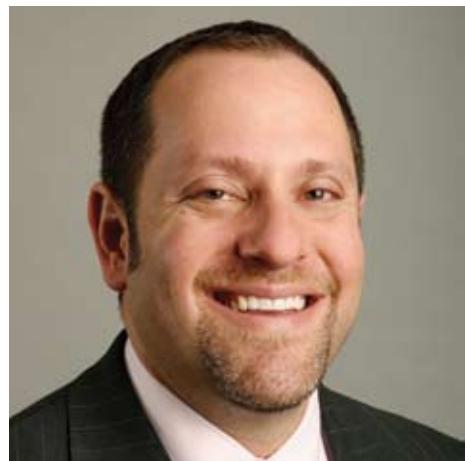

Ellen Labes

The ultimate "professional volunteer" – fundraiser, activist, advocate, mentor – Ellen Labes describes her career with Federation as one of the most exciting journeys she's ever taken. At the helm of Federation's Women's Department, as chair of Federation's Lion of Judah, and as a founding member of the Jewish Women's Foundation, Ellen has influenced and inspired women to move forward and up in leadership positions throughout the Federation and its partner agencies. A past co-chair of Federation's Commission on Jewish Eldercare Services, Ellen has served on the boards of Fresh Air Society, JARC, Jewish Community Council, Jewish Family Service, National Council of Jewish Women, the Sisterhood of Congregation Shaarey Zedek and Yad Ezra.

Young Leadership Awards

Rising stars. Each year the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Detroit recognizes three outstanding individuals who have demonstrated exceptional leadership ability and commitment to the community.

SYLVIA SIMON GREENBERG AWARD

Heidi Fischgrund Budaj

Staff member of the Jewish Community Center, with a long-standing leadership role in Federation's Young Adult Division and Women's Campaign and Education Department, Heidi Fischgrund Budaj is a founding co-chair of the PACT (Parents and Children Together) program in Netanya, Israel, and has served on the National Young Leadership Cabinet (United Jewish Communities). Currently Heidi also serves on the boards of Jewish Family Service and the B'nai B'rith Youth Organization.

FRANK A. WETSMAN AWARD

Mark Adler

Real estate developer and builder, Mark Adler is a board member of the Jewish Federation and the United Jewish Foundation of Metropolitan Detroit, current chair of the Capital Needs Division, member of the Real Estate & Property Management and Planning and Allocations Committees, and a past chair of the Rabin Division. With a passion for bringing people to Israel, Mark served as a bus captain on Federation's Family Miracle Mission. He also serves on the boards of the Fresh Air Society and B'nai B'rith Youth Organization.

MARK FAMILY AWARD

Lorne B. Gold

Bloomfield Hills Attorney Lorne Gold is a board member and officer of Federation's Young Adult Division and current chair of the YAD 2006 Annual Campaign. Involved in many Federation programs and initiatives, Lorne has played leading roles in Campaign Countdown, the Class of a Million Steering Committee, YAD Major Gifts, Shutafim L'atid Exchange to Israel and the Partnership 2000 Steering Committee. Lorne is also a board member of Jewish Family Service and serves as chair of its Development Committee.

Berman Award / Maas Prize / Grinspoon-Steinhardt Award

Established in 1988, the Mandell L. and Madeleine H. Berman Award recognizes the outstanding contributions of professionals employed by the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Detroit and its partnership agencies.

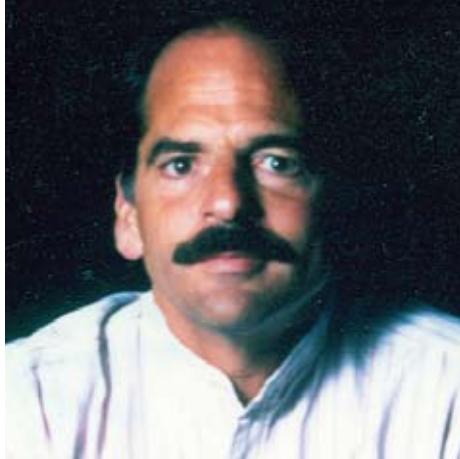

The Maas Prize is awarded annually to honor individuals or organizations whose work enhances Jewish life in Michigan. The categories in which the awards are given are performing arts, fine arts and humanities.

A national honor, established in 2000 by the Harold Grinspoon Foundation and the Jewish Life Network/Steinhardt Foundation, this award recognizes outstanding Jewish educators who have demonstrated a career commitment to their field.

THE MANDELL L. &
MADELEINE H. BERMAN AWARD
Sharon Alterman

As founding director of the Leonard N. Simons Jewish Community Archives, Sharon Alterman is described by colleagues as a "gentle soul" with a love of history and a can-do spirit. Over the past 15 years, with her team of volunteers, Sharon has been a creative force in moving, organizing and bringing to life a collection that now occupies 3,000 linear feet, including the Sinai Hospital archives and a Jewish community Centennial exhibit preserved in the Max. M. Fisher Building and in the Reuther Library at Wayne State University. Sharon has created a truly magnificent community treasure, a legacy for generations to come.

BENARD L. MAAS PRIZE FOR ACHIEVEMENT IN JEWISH CULTURE AND CONTINUITY
Jeff Haas

Jeff Haas has spent 25 years composing and performing original music that combines his passion for Judaic, jazz and classical idioms. He received national attention with the release of his recording, "L'Dor VaDor"—Generation to Generation, an homage to his father. In 1997, he was commissioned by Federation to write an original jazz suite that he entitled "HaGesher Chai"—The Bridge Lives, a work that received numerous accolades. In 2004, he received the Sara Hardy Humanitarian of the Year Award. Jeff is extremely committed to transmitting awareness and understanding about Judaism and diversity through the universal language of music.

GRINSCOON-STEINHARDT AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE IN JEWISH EDUCATION
Faye Ellen Friedman

"There is nothing more exciting to me than the learning enthusiasm of a pre-school child. I have never been tempted by another career path."

A gifted educator, joyous in her work in the classroom, Faye Ellen Friedman has been a pre-school teacher, devoted to her students at Adat Shalom Nursery School and Kindergarten, for 27 years. As she describes, her "first batch of students are now doctors, lawyers, teachers, with children of their own." With a love of teaching and a deep felt sense of responsibility for nurturing her young students, Faye has touched hundreds of lives and earned the admiration and affection of the community.

Millennium Campaign for Detroit's Jewish Future

Initiated in 1998 by the Jewish Federation and the United Jewish Foundation of Metropolitan Detroit, the Millennium Campaign for Detroit's Jewish Future was established to enhance Jewish life in Detroit with a twofold goal: to promote Jewish education, congregational programming, culture and arts, identity and continuity for generations to come, and to redevelop, renew and transform the Jewish Community Center, building a true "center" of Jewish life for the entire community.
