JFMD 2012 Annual Campaign

Annual Report to the Community 2010-2011 / 5770-5771

We Close the Year

This past year, we have provided $2 million in loans to 1,200 Jews in our community who needed financial help.

Graduates (250+) are moving into the workforce, and Jewish educational programs are in place to help these individuals find new jobs or transition to new careers.

We continue to produce thousands of books on Jewish thought and personal passions for the arts and athletics.

We inspire a passion for learning, responsibility based on student interests and initiatives. At EMU – Hillel, students lead, explore and build a vibrant Jewish future.

Hillel U – M: The second largest student organization at the University of Michigan, housing more student-run programs than any other group except for the University Activities Center. We facilitate self and community, and devotion to Jewish living in a warm and inviting environment for all Jewish families, wishing to provide their children the opportunity to engage in Jewish life based on student interests and initiatives. At EMU - Hillel, students lead, explore and build a vibrant Jewish future.

Putting our Resources to Work
This is an extraordinary time to be a Jewish Detroit. Despite a number of serious economic and social crises facing the entire nation, our Jewish community remains one of the closest and most-above-all. The quality of our services, community programming, cultural activities and Jewish education is truly unparalleled. Our support for the State of Israel, and close bond with its people, continue to grow. Throughout the city, young adults are coming together to build a future in Detroit. All of this is made possible because of our continued and remarkably generous legacy giving. For all we've accomplished in recent years, Jewish Detroiters have good reason to be proud.

Out work, however, is never finished. The economic situation remains uncertain. Poverty, homelessness, chronic disease and unemployment remain a threat unlike any we've seen in generations. Thousands of Jews here, in Israel and across the globe have been affected and thousands more are now vulnerable. For these reasons, Federation's 2012 campaign will call to action to engage our entire community. The response to the call will determine the outcome of this year, but of many years to come.

The response is simple. Step Forward and assume responsibility. Step Forward and contribute to our community.

Together we must transform the doubts and uncertainties of our community into a renewed sense of strength and purpose for the future. We sincerely appreciate your continued commitment and participation in Federation. We looking forward to stepping forward together.

We sincerely appreciate your continued commitment and participation in Federation.

We look forward to stepping forward together.

This is an extraordinary time to be a Jewish Detroit. Despite a number of serious economic and social crises facing the entire nation, our Jewish community remains one of the closest and most activist anywhere. The quality of our services, community programming, cultural activities and Jewish education is truly unparalleled. Our support for the State of Israel, and ties with the global Jewish community, continue to grow.

Throughout the city, young adults are coming together to build a future in Detroit. All of this is made possible because of our connectedness and remarkable generosity.

For all we've accomplished in recent years, Detroit Hasidic Jews have good reason to be proud.

Our work, however, is far from finished. The economic crisis continues to remain severe. Poverty, homelessness, chronic disease and unemployment remain a threat unlike any we've seen in generations. Thousands of Jews here, in Israel and across the globe have been affected and thousands more are now facing unemployment.

We look forward to stepping forward together.

This is an extraordinary time to be a Jewish Detroit. Despite a number of serious economic and social crises facing the entire nation, our Jewish community remains one of the closest and most activist anywhere. The quality of our services, community programming, cultural activities and Jewish education is truly unparalleled. Our support for the State of Israel, and ties with the global Jewish community, continue to grow.

Throughout the city, young adults are coming together to build a future in Detroit. All of this is made possible because of our connectedness and remarkable generosity.

For all we've accomplished in recent years, Detroit Hasidic Jews have good reason to be proud.

Our work, however, is far from finished. The economic crisis continues to remain severe. Poverty, homelessness, chronic disease and unemployment remain a threat unlike any we've seen in generations. Thousands of Jews here, in Israel and across the globe have been affected and thousands more are now facing unemployment.

Poverty, homelessness, chronic illness and unemployment remain a threat unlike any we've seen in generations. The response to this call will be critical to the Community's future.

We sincerely appreciate your continued commitment and participation in Federation.
